

The 8th Asia Pacific ADR Conference

Ensuring Legitimacy, Delivering Efficiency : Procedural Trends and Potential Reforms in Dispute Resolution

On behalf of the co-organizers, the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL), the Ministry of Justice of the Republic of Korea (MOJ), the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC) and the Seoul International Dispute Resolution Center (Seoul IDRC), KCAB INTERNATIONAL is pleased to invite you at the 8th Asia Pacific ADR Conference (Conference) on 20 September 2019 in Seoul, Republic of Korea.

This year the Conference is titled, "Ensuring Legitimacy, Delivering Efficiency: Procedural Trends and Potential Reforms in Dispute Resolution" and will highlight important aspects of the need for balance between ensuring legitimacy and delivering efficiency in international dispute resolution. By focusing on contemporary issues in international dispute resolution and their current and future impact on both users and institutions, the Conference aims to provide a thorough and holistic insight into the ADR today.

We look forward to seeing you in Seoul.
